UNUSUAL CIRCUMSTANCES

If you feel that the FAFSA represents an unrealistic view of your family's current situation, contact the Financial Aid Office for a Professional Judgement/Dependency Override Form, and/or a Budget Adjustment Form.

RELEASES (PLEASE READ AND INITIAL ALL THAT APPLY)

- If I am a recipient of Federal Financial Aid (Title IV funds), I understand that my unpaid tuition, book and fees will be deferred to my Pell Grant Award and if a balance remains it will be my responsibility to pay the difference. I understand that all charges for tuition, books and fees will be deducted from my Pell disbursement and the remaining amount will be disbursed to me in the form of a check by the Bursar's office.
- The Financial Aid Office has my permission to release all personal information, including grades and FAFSA data, if required by internal or external scholarship donors and other related agencies.
- I understand that I must reapply for financial aid each year and that it is my responsibility to obtain the necessary forms and adhere to the deadlines set by the Financial Aid Office.
- I understand I must make satisfactory academic progress in my major to receive my financial aid disbursement. SAP is checked at the end of each payment period. The SAP policy has been made available for me to read.

FEDERAL STUDENT AID REFUND POLICY:

If a student receiving financial aid withdraws or completes early before satisfying 90% of the attendance hours and all scheduled weeks, they are subject to calculations that can result in returned Pell funds. For withdraws, the financial aid office will complete a R2T4 to determine the amount of financial aid the student has earned for the time they were enrolled. If a student does not complete more than 60% of their payment period they will be required to return a portion of the Title IV funds received. This may cause the student to owe money to the school and/or the federal government.
